

FULBRIGHT
New Zealand

TE TŪĀPAPA MĀTAURANGA
O AOTEAROA ME AMERIKA

Fulbright NZ Graduate Awards

(From left: Hitaua Arahanga-Doyle, Carrie Clifford, and Abbas Nazari, pictured here in New York. All were awarded Fulbright Graduate scholarships in 2018 and 2019.)

Fulbright NZ offer top quality educational scholarships for kiwis to do further study in the US.

The mission of the Fulbright Programme is to promote mutual understanding through educational and cultural exchanges between the US and other countries.

New Zealand was one of the first countries in the world to sign up to the Fulbright programme back in 1948, so we have a long and established history.

Globally the Fulbright brand carries significant respect and mana and is well known as one of the best educational scholarship programmes in the world.

What you need to be eligible for a Fulbright NZ Graduate Award:

- Must be a New Zealand citizen
- Must not already live in the US, be a US citizen, or permanent resident
- Must have at least 4 years of tertiary level study including an undergraduate degree (but not a doctorate degree)
- Have a strong academic record & excellent ambassadorial qualities

What you get:

- Up to US$40,000 for a first year of study with the opportunity to apply for additional funding of up to US$30,000 towards a second year of study
- Return travel airfare of up to NZ$4,000
- IIE's University Placement Services
- Pre-departure and Gateway orientation programme, enrichment seminars, on-going pastoral care
- Basic health benefit plan
- The lifelong prestige of having held a Fulbright award

There are three different graduate awards on offer:

- Fulbright NZ Science and Innovation Award
- Fulbright NZ General Graduate Award
- Fulbright Ngā Pae o te Māramatanga Graduate Award

Applications are due by August 1, 2022

Successful awardees will depart for the US around July 2023

Go to fulbright.org.nz to find out how to apply